WARRANTY

90 Day Limited Product Warranty

Wing Bling Corporation (WBC) Warranty is limited to all products being free from manufacturing defect. All patterns and colors may vary slightly from piece to piece.

WBC is not responsible for road wear and tear, UV or any other exterior contamination. WBC does not assume any liability for the removal or installation of any parts supplied by WBC.

Should any defective parts be determined, remedy shall be limited to the exchange of the defective part only. All labor charges are non-refundable.

All sales require either a core part exchange or customer supplied core parts.

CORE EXCHANGES

All core part exchanges must be in reasonably CLEAN condition. Any broken or damaged parts shall not be credited as a core exchange.

CORE EXCHANGES

All pricing includes the return of the original of the core part(s) as an exchange unless the customer supplies their own core part(s). A one time core charge shall be applied to the invoice per part. Once Wing Bling Corporation receives the replacement core part(s) in clean undamaged condition, a credit and/or refund of the core charge shall be applied to the customer. (Actual amounts may vary based on condition of the core part(s) exchanged.)
